What are my obligations?

Disclosing Important Information

You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to questions you are asked when you take out or make any changes to your policy.

Duty of fair presentation

Under the Insurance Act 2015, you have a duty to make fair representation of the risk to us before the policy starts, when you make any amendments to your cover and when you renew your policy. This means you must:

- a) Disclose all material facts which you know or ought to know (a “material fact” is information that would influence our decision as to whether to insure you and, if so, on what terms)
- b) Make the disclosure in a reasonably clear and accessible way and;
- c) Ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct and made in good faith

Full details of what constitutes “fair representation” and the consequences of breaching this duty are given in the Terms of Business.

When and how do I pay?

You can pay for your policy either annually or by 12 monthly instalments. Payment can only be made by Direct Debit. The Direct Debit will renew automatically and we will continue collecting premiums unless you notify us that you want to cancel the policy.

When does the cover start and end?

Your cover starts on the policy start date shown on your Welcome Letter and continues for a period of 12 months. We may then offer you cover for further 12 month periods.

How do I cancel the contract?

If you want to cancel please contact Hometree:

- By phone: 0800 368 9881
- By email: support@hometree.co.uk

Cancellation within 14 days – Cooling off period

If you cancel within 14 days of your start date, you will get a full refund as long as you have not made a claim or had a service.

Cancellation after 14 days

Our cover plans are annual contracts. This means that if you cancel after 14 days and you have had work done, you will have to pay cancellation charges. See the full policy terms and conditions for more details.
